Welcome to Yealmpton Show

Health & Safety rules and emergency plan for members incorporating the warning to the public as shown in catalogue

HEALTH & SAFETY FOR ALL COMPETITORS, EXHIBITORS AND THE GENERAL PUBLIC

The organisers of the Yealmpton Agricultural Show will take all reasonable precautions to ensure the health and safety of everyone present. For these measures to be effective, every-one present must themselves take all reasonable precautions to avoid and prevent accidents occurring and must obey the instructions of the Organisers and all Officials and Stewards. The organisers of the Show hereby give notice that they will accept no liability for injury to the person or any animal or for any loss or damage whatsoever suffered by any competitor or exhibitor in any horse-jumping or livestock competition or event. All such competitors and exhibitors take part at their own risk and before entering should inspect the course to satisfy themselves that the condition of the ground and construction of the fences are safe for competition.

WARNING TO THE PUBLIC

Do not touch the animals.

Wash your hands before eating.

Beware of animals being moved around the show ground.

Do not tamper with machinery, implements or tools.

Beware of tent pegs and guy ropes adjacent to tents.

1. The speed limit is 5 miles per hour
2. Vehicles will be parked as directed
3. All persons must conduct themselves so that they do not put themselves or anyone else at risk
4. Animals can easily be frightened and can be dangerous. Members of the public must keep clear of the lanes used by animals and avoid behaviour which might alarm them.
5. Children are the responsibility of parents/guardians and must be supervised by them at all times.
6. All dogs are the responsibility of the owners and should be on a lead under control at all times.
7. Upon entering the ground establish where the First Aid Post is situated. (Next to Secretary's tent)
8. Exhibitors, traders and competitors must comply with the appropriate Health and Safety Legislation as well as the conditions of entry to the show for traders and exhibitors.
9. Horses and ponies may only be ridden in the designated areas and not in areas open to the public. (For safety reasons the public are not permitted access to the cordoned off area set aside for competitors, horse boxes etc.)

EMERGENCIES

In the event of a major incident stewards report to the Secretary's tent and liaise with the Director of the Yard and Safety Officer, or as directed by the PA system

In an emergency please contact the nearest show official who will address the problem.

In the event of a fire in a large marquee, a fire alarm (bell or horn) will warn occupants. The Secretary must be informed immediately as well as the emergency service of any fire. (The emergency entrance for fire / ambulance is through the main entrance at Kitley Lodge gate and should be met at the lodge gate by a designated person to direct them to the incident.)

A FIRST AID POINT and Doctor are next to the Secretary's tent.

IN THE EVENT THAT EVACUATION OF THE SHOW GROUND IS NECESSARY FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN AT THE TIME EITHER FROM THE P.A. SYSTEM OR BY A STEWARD

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Company may refuse entry to any exhibitor who infringes the rules of the Company and not accept entries from anyone who is considered incompatible with the aims of the Company. The Company will accept no liability for any loss incurred consequent upon the cancellation of the Show for whatever reason.

General Rules

1. Entry forms may be obtained from the Secretary, Section Secretaries or www.yealmptonshow.co.uk and must be correctly filled in and returned to the Section Secretaries together with the amount for all fees and subscriptions, on or before Monday 25th June 2018.
2. In the event of less than three exhibitors in any Class, then the committee reserves the right to either cancel that Class or amalgamate with another Class or Classes.
3. All stock exhibited shall be bona fide property of the exhibitor on the day of entry.
4. Distinguishing number labels will be forwarded by the Secretary to each exhibitor; such labels must be conspicuously affixed to the animal before they can be admitted to the Show Yard – excluding sheep exhibits.
5. The yard will be open for the reception of goats from 1200 hours on Tuesday 24th July 2018. All other livestock will be admitted from 0700 hours on showday.
6. Unless permission has been granted by relevant Chief Steward, all stock must remain in the Show Yard until FOUR p.m. Exhibitors breaking this rule may forfeit any prize money, trophies, cups won. All winners of 1st, 2nd, 3rd and special prizes in the horse classes must enter the Grand Parade or they may forfeit any prize money, trophies and cups.
7. The Judges will be instructed to have the opinion of a Veterinary Surgeon for any animal they may think unsound or not complying with the description of the Class; they will also be empowered to withhold the prizes in any Class where they are of the opinion there is not sufficient merit or, should there be only one entry in any Class, to award whichever prize their opinion such entry merits.
8. In case of doubt or protest with regard to any exhibit, such protest must be given in writing to the Show Secretary within one hour of the publication of the Judge's decision. Any person making a protest must, at the same time, deposit with the Show Secretary the sum of £20, unless otherwise stated, which sum will be repaid should the protest be upheld, but should a protest be overruled the amount will be forfeited to the funds of the Company. All questions under this rule shall be decided by the Committee, or Subcommittee as they may appoint, assisted where necessary by the Veterinary Surgeon and their decision shall be final.
9. All persons making a false entry, or claiming a prize by a false certificate or otherwise breaking or infringing any of the Rules, Regulations or Conditions of the Company, may be prohibited from exhibiting or competing at any future show of the Company.
10. The Company reserves the right to refuse any entry in any Class without giving any reason.
11. The Company will not, in any case or under any circumstances hold itself responsible for any loss or damage which stock may sustain.
12. In the interests of Safety, Calor Gas Cylinders will not be allowed in the Tents.
13. Strictly no parking in livestock lines.
14. In all classes the judge's decision is final
15. All livestock exhibitors should ensure they have adequate public liability insurance cover (suggested minimum of £5 million).

Rules applicable to Horses

1. The name and colour must be stated on the entry form. A height certificate may be requested.
2. All riders in Riding and Jumping Classes are required to wear a correctly fitted hard hat which conforms to the appropriate British Standard, including the use of chin straps.
3. It is recommended that all horses are vaccinated against equine influenza at least one month prior to the Show.
4. All Mountain and Moorland ponies must be registered with their respective breed society and be shown in accordance with their individual society rules
5. Stallions and colts. In hand classes: handlers must have attained their 14th birthday before the 1st of January in the current year. Ridden small breeds classes: riders must have attained their 12th birthday before the 1st of January in the current year.
Ridden large breed classes: riders must have attained their 14th birthday before the 1st of January in the current year
6. No pony under the age of 4 may compete in any ridden class
7. A deposit system will be in place for all Equine Section Cups and Trophies that are to be taken away from the showground. This will be £10 per cup/trophy – to be fully refunded when the Cup/Trophy has been returned by the required date the following year.

Rules applicable to Goats

1. CAE or monitored certificates MUST be enclosed with entries. Entries will not be accepted without these certificates.
2. The Goat Classes are held under the Rules, Regulations and Recognition of the British Goat Society.
3. All exhibits must be registered with the B.G.S. as in the ownership and in the name of exhibitor, the registered name and number being quoted on the Entry Form.
(Also the kidding date for goats in milk).
4. All goats in milk must be kidded or aborted a minimum of 30 days previous to the date of the Show.
5. No pregnant goat may be admitted to the showground.
6. All goats must have clear earmarks as they will be checked.
7. Caprine Arthritis Encephalitis: Only monitored herds and those with whole herd CAE tests may enter this show. A Current CAE certificate for all entries must be submitted with the entries. Goats under 1 year old must be on your CAE certificate or the dam's last CAE test result must be sent.
8. Inspection/Production: all goats from Classes 401 to 408 who are entered in Classes 424 to 430 must parade in the IPCC parade if they were placed in the first four in their inspection class.
9. All In-milk goats must be on the showground not later than 5.30 p.m. on Tuesday 24th July 2018.
10. Milkers will be stripped out by stewards by 6.30 p.m. on that day.
11. Kids and Goatlings may be brought on Showday. Please be on the showground by 9.30 am and notify the goat steward of your arrival.

Rules applicable to Cattle

1. The name and passport number of each animal must be given on the entry form.
2. Exhibitors in the Cattle Classes must be aware of HSE guidance AIS 35 on the handling and housing of cattle. Exhibitors of bulls over 10 months of age must ensure that two handlers accompany the bull at all times when competing or moving the animal from the cattle lines to the show ring and back again and must have a clamp or ring in its nose and, if necessary shall be led by a leading stick.
3. Handlers of beef animals should have with them "bulldogs". Exhibitors must be satisfied in all cases, and at all times, that the correct and appropriate restraining method and equipment is provided for use by animal handlers and where appropriate heifers should be trained to accept "bulldogs" as a restraint.
4. All cattle must be secured to the satisfaction of the Stewards, who shall have the power to exclude from the Showground any vicious or unruly animal.
5. All animals must be properly halter trained before they come to the Show. Exhibitors are responsible for their own cattle at all times.
6. Livestock exhibitors are reminded that Cattle Movement documents are required to travel with livestock in accordance with current regulations.
7. The image of the farming industry to the public is important. As part of that philosophy, the former Holstein Friesian Society standardised the dress of exhibitors and showmen with the recommendation of white shirt, tie and white trousers. This has been adopted at the majority of major exhibitions and it is hoped that exhibitors will follow this recommendation at Yealmpton Show.
8. All cattle to be shown in accordance with their breed society rules and the handler deemed competent to handle the animal.
9. Cattle are to be washed and groomed at their allotted tie.
10. Cattle must be free from TB
11. Mobile phones MUST NOT be used when handling animals in the Show Ring or Grand Parades.
12. All livestock exhibitors should ensure they have adequate public liability insurance cover (suggested minimum of £5 million).

Rules applicable to Sheep

1. All exhibits to be shown according to their breed rules.
2. Not more than two entries per exhibitor in each Class.
3. The committee reserve the right to cancel or amalgamate any classes if less than three entries or exhibitors in a class
4. All stock exhibited shall be bona fide property of the exhibitor on day of entry.
5. Separate penning will be provided for Maedi Visna/CAE accredited sheep. Exhibitors must declare the status on the Entry Form and COPY OF a Current Valid Health Status Report, TO BE completed AND RETURNED WITH ENTRY FORM. NO CURRENT VALID health status means no unloading in MV/CAE accredited area.
6. All sheep to be unloaded and penned by 9.30 am. No sheep to be reloaded before 4.00 pm (see General Rule 6)
7. Sheep in commercial classes are not eligible for Championship
8. Cup winners who fail to take part in the Grand Parade / Presentation of Cups will forfeit those Cups, unless prior permission has been granted by the chief Sheep Steward

IMPORTANT NOTICE FOR ALL POULTRY OWNERS CONCERNING AVIAN FLU

DEFRA have Issued Instructions on record keeping and biosecurity that must be observed.

We are permitted to hold both Poultry and Pet Shows and to allow birds to be sold on the day by doing the following;

1. A nominated person will be designated as the event organiser and a person made responsible for keeping the records set out below.
2. A record of all attendees (exhibitors) will be kept for three months which includes the following information;
Full name
Home address
Telephone number
Number and types of birds
3. A named veterinary surgeon will be contactable for advice and to attend in the event of a suspect disease.
4. Biosecurity advice will be distributed at the event.
5. If sales of birds are taking place at the event, a record of all sales will be kept by the event organiser for at least three months. This will include the name, address and telephone number of both the seller and the buyer, and any Identifying features or Individual Identification of the purchased bird/s.
6. The local State Veterinary Service Animal Health Office nearest to the event will be notified at least 14 days prior to the event taking place. Notification will include date, location, details of the event organiser and anticipated numbers and types of birds.

DEFRA Biosecurity best practice conditions to be applied.

- Written action plans, held by the nominated responsible person, will be available in the event of a disease incident at the event or nearby to the event.
- All litter and manure within the cages, crates, and baskets must be contained until disposal. Any spillages outside the cage to be cleansed and disinfected immediately.
- All litter and manure must be disposed of in a manner which does not present a risk of spread of the disease, e.g. in sealed bags for normal refuse collection in such a manner that other birds do not have direct access to it.
- All exhibitors/entrants will be instructed to cleanse and disinfect the show cages, crates, and baskets before the event and be advised that they should be cleansed and disinfected on return to the home premises and before they are used to hold any other bird.

SALES

Buyers must isolate the purchased bird/s from any other birds (except those purchased at the same event) for at least one week. Any signs of ill health observed in the purchased bird/s during this period must be reported to a veterinary surgeon and such birds must not be mixed with any other birds until the presence of a notifiable disease is ruled out.

FINALLY

If the stewards consider any bird to be in distress at the show, then they will isolate the bird without reference to the owner and call the vet.
